

Child Labor....

A penny a day
Doesn't keep the tears away

PEACE

How My Father
Strive for Justice

Social Justice

By: Andrea Thompson

The world is full of desperation
And no one seems to care
There are tons of people, who need our help,
But all we do is stare
We could make a difference
By lending them a hand.
We could give them guidance,
To lead them to the right path.
You might think that the world is in peace,
But it's all just a lie,
This situation must be ceased
Before it's too late to try.
We could still help the people who strive for our support,
Hand in hand to work hard together,
To make justice prevail.